Screenings of Films Relating to the Work of the Seattle City Council

Curated by Adam Sekuler

Today's Filmmaker is Matthew Brown.

Matthew Brown graduated from the Art Institute of Seattle, where he majored in film production. He is a winner of the Chicago-based Z-Kudos Award, which recognizes up-and-coming filmmakers, and is currently producing a series of short films which he will later compile into a feature.

Today's Screening: "Shoah"
by Matthew Brown, Seattle, 2010
3 minutes

A holocaust survivor visits a memorial for the first time – a stark reminder of the value of civil and human rights.

Film Forum Curator: Adam Sekuler

Adam Sekuler serves as the program director for Northwest Film Forum located on Capitol Hill. Before arriving in Seattle he was programmer for the nation's first and only dedicated non-fiction theatre, The Bell Auditorium. He is co-founder of Search and Rescue, an ongoing effort to present and preserve discarded archives of 16mm films. He also programmed for the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Film Festival and Sound Unseen. In his early years he booked music for the Whole Music Club, Minneapolis' only all ages venue. During his spare time, Adam makes short films that have screened at festivals and museums. You can find him scheming about bus cabarets and penciling in words on crossword puzzles on the weekends.
